

Tonight we pray for the momma who feels alone...

Tonight we pray for the momma who is grateful for her friends...

Tonight we pray for the momma who is afraid of tomorrow...

Tonight we pray for the momma who is a rock for her family...

Tonight we pray for the momma who has a newborn...

Tonight we pray for the momma who has a teenager...

Tonight we pray for the momma who is raising her grandchildren...

Tonight we pray for the momma who has an unexpected pregnancy...

Tonight we pray for the momma who figured it out...

Tonight we pray for the momma who needs an answer...

Tonight we pray for the momma who feels far from shore. The lights on land reveal an impossible distance to cross. She feels as if she's drifting, floating further and further away from solid ground. Lord, tonight we ask that You'd be the anchor of hope in this momma's life. Be the one who reaches out and pulls her to dry land. Be the light that guides her heart through every stormy night. Surround her and shield her. Call to her and remind her that she's not alone. Pull this momma closer to You now. Calm every wind. Speak peace to every strong gale. Help her see where You are right now in this moment. We ask in Jesus's name. Amen.

Tonight I'm praying for you.

Give her wisdom and grace...

Help her rest tonight...

Help this momma have patience...

Help her know she's not alone...
